FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

Rabbi Carla Freedman

The Jewish year begins, as you know, in the fall; this corresponds to beginning of the day with what we think of as the evening of the night before. Clearly, our ancestors saw a relationship between the evening and autumn, between night and winter, and between morning and spring, and between daytime and summer.

Most of us probably think of the evening as the time to wind down from the day's activities and the night as the time to recover from them and prepare (physically, if not otherwise) for the coming day. Our ancestors apparently thought of evening as the time to reflect on the day to come, and to plan for it. They saw the night as the opportunity to rejuvenate the soul by sending it back to its Creator for some rest and refreshment.

Beginning the day with sunset and beginning the new year with autumn feels counter-intuitive to us. But what does feel absolutely right is to begin the new year with serious reflection of the year now past, and serious consideration of the year just beginning. The Jewish tradition of self-examination that commences with Rosh HaShanah corresponds to our ancestors' idea that evening time (represented by autumn) invites anticipation of the year to come, with special emphasis on heshbon ha nefesh, a reckoning of our very life over the last 12 months.

So I am offering a few questions to stimulate your reflections, in preparation for the hard work of heshbon ha nefesh. I suggest that you take a few minutes each day to think about these matters, and let them percolate in your subconscious as we draw closer and closer to the High Holy Days. There is no particular order or hierarchy to these questions.

- What am I most proud of, in my last 12 months of life?
- To whom have I made a difference over the past year?
- Who has made a difference to me in that time?
- What new thing(s) have I learned this year?
- What has been the best use of my time?
- What have I done that will have a positive impact on the future?
- How is the world a better place because of my time in it?

As you can see, the presumption behind these questions is that a reckoning of your last 12 months will be full of positive things. Please take the time to recognize all the goodness about you.

And also note that you can easily turn these questions into guidance for the next 12 months: just change the verbs from past tense to future tense (eg: to whom will I make a difference?).

Of course, there were disappointments, regrets, losses, sadness, pain. And there are plenty of opportunities to consider these, especially on Yom Kippur. You can also use these questions to expose the ways in which you did not achieve what you hope for from yourself (eg: what have I done that will have a negative impact on the future?).

Then you can rephrase the questions to guide you in the coming year (eg: how can I make a positive impact this year, instead of a negative one?).

And I would propose one final question, to stimulate your thinking and guide your behaviour in the coming year:

- Have I said "thank you" enough this year?

No one ever does. So I encourage you to begin a running account of gratitude. This requires recognizing gratitude and expressing it. You might want to get a jump on the new year by starting that account now. Think how good you will feel.

Jeanne and I wish you a year of health, peace, and joy.

L'shanah tovah tikateyvu v'tikhateymu.

May you be written and sealed in the Book of Life for a good new year.

Carla

President's Message Joanne Sudman

They tell us that Fall is just around the corner; I sure hope so as I am looking forward to some cooler weather. Our High Holy Days are just around the corner as well. As you look at the schedule for the times of the services don't forget that after the Rosh Hashanah morning service we come to my backyard to cast out all of our sins we have committed during the year during the very short Tashlich service. So bring your breadcrumbs to temple, leave them in the car, and then come to 1807 Del Webb (just three blocks from temple) "to pitch those sins".

Two of our new additions have arrived!! We have a new sound system at the back of the sanctuary that has been installed. A beautifully handmade cabinet will be arriving soon to house the system. With this system we are assured that we won't have any squeals, squeaks, or silences during our services and programs. Please take a moment to admire our new addition, BUT PLEASE DON'T TOUCH.

Our second new addition is the installation of our security doors for both the sanctuary and the social hall. It took some maneuvering to put the new doors in the old frames but with the supervision of Bernie Katz, the door man did it right. We will be painting them and using some beautiful film to cover the windows that will allow light to come in, but give us some privacy.

Please take a moment to look at some very important information in our Beth Israel spotlight section. You have an opportunity to change a person's life.

Finally, I want to personally wish you and your families a healthy and happy New Year, L'shana Tova — Ketivah vi-chatima Tova. Our tradition tells us that God can forgive our sins against God, but we need to ask any individual whom we may have wronged for forgiveness. So if I have unknowingly wronged you in any way, I sincerely apologize and ask for your forgiveness

Heart to heart,

Joanne

AUGUST 27: CHAVURAH GET TOGETHER

SEPTEMBER 30: BREAK FAST AT TEMPLE AFTER CONCLUDING SERVICES

NOVEMBER 5: KUGEL COOKOFF (WATCH FOR TIME IN LATER ISSUES)

SUNDAY, AUG. 27, 3:00 NEW CHAVUROT FORMING

CHAVURAH is commonly translated as “fellowship,” derived from the Hebrew root that means “friend” or “friendship.” Members of chavurot support each other in times of need as well as to celebrate with each other in times of joy. A chavurah is a small group of like-minded Jews who assemble for the purposes of sharing communal experiences such as Jewish learning, Jewish traditions and whatever meets the needs of the group. There is a haimish atmosphere; it can grow to become extended family.

Temple Beth Israel is offering an opportunity to learn about and join a chavurah. This process will be different from the way groups were formed in the past. We will meet on Sunday, August 27, in the Social Hall from 3-5 PM.

At that time, we will discuss a variety of specific interest groups and you can decide what meets your needs. Study groups? Discussions? Secular activities? Interfaith families? Community service? Cultural activities? Holiday observance? Women’s group? Men’s group? And more.

In addition to finding a “theme,” you may have a choice of a group that meets in the day or evening. In home? Meals? Potluck? Coffee and Cake? Donations for Members’ birthdays, illnesses, etc.? Maximum number? New friends? Established friends?

We will discuss our wants and needs of potential groups being formed, have a snack (of course), and mingle with others and find those like-minded people. Those people will exchange telephone numbers/emails and form a group themselves. They will choose their own guidelines for success.

We are hoping to do this twice a year – August and February—that will allow new and established congregants to join or rejoin a chavurah if and when they are ready!

Put it on your calendar—Sunday August 27 at 3:00 PM. Questions? Call Judy 813-746-1222.

The Voting Restoration Amendment

Your Beth Israel Board would like you to consider signing this petition that would restore a person's right to vote once they've fulfilled their obligations to society. Florida is one of only three states with a lifetime ban on voting. The Amendment modernizes Florida's criminal justice rules by bringing our state in line with others nationwide. Denial of civil rights has no place in any state.

Rochelle Lafer Sisterhood President

Welcome to September and our High Holy Day season. As we all begin to get ready for this very special time of year I look forward to seeing many of you as we join together in prayer. Once again we will have the pleasure of being led by Rabbi Carla Freedman and Cantor Glenn Groper, who have been working together for weeks to ensure a most meaningful series of Holy Day services. On behalf of the Beth Israel Sisterhood Board of Directors I would like to wish you all a healthy and a happy New Year.

Sisterhood begins our programming year in October and runs through May. Our annual paid-up member's luncheon will be held on Tuesday, November 14th. Please keep in mind that in order to attend the luncheon in November your Sisterhood dues must be paid by the October meeting. Don't forget to return the form enclosed with the dues notice so that we have accurate information in order to get in touch with you.

Our opening meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 10th at 1pm in the Henry Gibson Social Hall. Our speaker will be Rabbi Carla Freedman. More information about this meeting will follow shortly.

Joy Rosen and Addie Unterlack have been busy restocking the shelves of the Sisterhood gift shop for your buying pleasure. They will have a display at the October meeting but if you need something for the holidays give them a call and they will be happy to help you.

Cyrille Cobe and her library committee have put together a wonderful program of events for the coming year, alternating between films and book discussions. If you haven't been to a library program consider joining them for a Monday morning gathering this season.

Lyn Safian is always happy to have new volunteers to sponsor a Friday night oneg. The sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board in the social hall and Lyn or I will be happy to walk you through all you need to know to make it happen. Celebrate a birthday, an anniversary or just being a part of the congregation with your Beth Israel family.

A huge thank you to the Program Committee and Board of Directors for the exciting programs scheduled for the coming season.

I look forward to another wonderful year

May we go from strength to strength.

Men's Club

Jeff Beller

Our last Membership Meeting before the summer break was held on May 24th & featured Beth Israel's own Fred Levine regaling us with stories & details of his 35+ years of baseball umpiring. He told us about what it takes to be an umpire as well as many of his experiences on a typical game day. Beginning with Little League & Babe Ruth baseball, his career has taken him all the way through pro-level AAA ball & even into the Major Leagues.

Right now the Men's Club Board is taking a well-earned break but, nonetheless, are preparing for the fall when we'll resume our programming with a Membership Meeting on October 25th & a Bagels & Discovery on October 29th. Programs will be announced as plans are finalized.

In the meantime, we wish you all a wonderful, safe & pleasant summer.

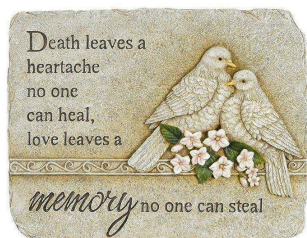

Shalom!

ASK THE RABBI

QUESTION : A Catholic friend of mine asked me, a propos of Yom Kippur, how come Jews only have to ask forgiveness once a year? He tells me that Catholics have to confess their sins at least once a week, before Sunday mass, in order to participate in the communion ritual. How should I answer this?

ANSWER : First, you should take a look at our weekday liturgy, in our Weekday and Festivals Prayerbook (which looks like but is different from the book we use on Shabbat) on page 84 [in the brackets and outside them]. The third paragraph says, “Forgive us for we have sinned, pardon us for we have transgressed, for You pardon and forgive. Blessed are You, Adonai, abounding in forgiveness.”

This is the third of the “petitionary prayers” that are inserted into the middle of the Amidah on weekdays, but removed on Shabbat and Festivals according to the principle that we don’t bother God with these things on days of rest.

These petitionary prayers are part of the weekday Amidah, 6 days a week, all year long (except for festivals which occur during the week, like Pesakh, Shavuot and Sukkot). And traditionally, they are read three times every day, evening, morning and afternoon.

So traditionally, a Jew asks for forgiveness three times a day, six days a week, all year long, except for those festivals mentioned above. Today, many Jews only attend services on Shabbat (if at all...), so they are unaware of this frequently offered request for forgiveness (and all the other petitionary prayers that are omitted on Shabbat; while you are at it, check out the others, on pp. 84, 86, 88,90).

As Roman Catholicism developed, it borrowed from the Biblically mandated rituals of repentance, and the Biblically mandated ideas of ritual purity, but reworked those into a new set of practices which focused on the Christian being in a state of purity (that is, without sin) in order to participate in the mysterious and powerful ritual of communion (“mysterious” in that it cannot be explained). Thus, a Catholic person is supposed to confess his/her sins to an ordained priest (whose ordination, also “mysterious”, gives him the power to absolve sins), in order to receive the wafer and wine of the communion ritual. That ritual brings the Christian into “oneness” with the Divine, which has no parallel in Jewish thinking or practice.

Still, there is nothing on any Christian calendar like Yom Kippur, when all Jews are supposed to come before God, having reconciled themselves with their fellow humans, to ask for Divine forgiveness. That large numbers of Jews still attend Yom Kippur services, even though their other religious practices are very few (if any), speaks loudly for the compelling nature of this occasion.

But it does a disservice to our heritage to overlook the daily prayers of repentance that a Jew is supposed to offer, a thrice daily act of humility and contrition.

I suggest you become familiar with these prayers and show them to your friend.

2017 Book of Remembrance

The High Holidays will soon be upon us in the fall and it is time to think about the 2017 Book of Remembrance to be used in the Yom Kippur and other Yiskor services. In an attempt to save money we will be trying to do as much as possible via e-mail which will reduce postage charges. We must have your information by the end of the second week in September in order to get the completed book to the printer in time to be ready for Yom Kippur.

We will be using the Congregation e-mail. Members who are unfamiliar with the Book of Remembrance or need to review their information are encouraged to look at last year's book which can be found at http://www.jcsc.org/images/stories/pdfs/Book_of_Remembrance_2016.pdf or the copy on the Temple bulletin board.

Members can send the information to us via e-mail at BethIsrael@jcsc.org. Those without e-mail can use either the telephone or postal mail to convey your information. If you wish to repeat the information that was in the 2016 Book of Remembrance please put "Same as last year" in your request. If you have changes please send only the changes. Please send your check to the address below.

For new listings please send the names and relationships (i.e. Joseph White Father of Millicent) and the size: individual line, half page or full page. A form is provided for new listings.

Lyn Safian (634-6013)

lynleestep@mac.com

Our thanks to those people who sponsor Onegs. Supporting an Oneg Shabbat is a mitzvah. If each member would sponsor just one Oneg a year, our calendar would be full. Please check the Oneg Shabbat list on the bulletin board and sign up to celebrate your special occasion. If you want information about sponsoring an Oneg, please contact the chairperson. The committee is willing to shop only for those members who are physically unable to shop for themselves. Thanks for your participation. Also, if you have just signed up, please call the chairperson to confirm the date.
