YIZKOR DATES FOR 2022-2023

Light candle evening before

Yom Kippur	October 5, 2022
Sh'mini Atzeret	October 17, 2022
Pesach	April 13, 2023
Shavuot	May 27, 2023

PRELUDE TO YIZKOR

The death of those close to our hearts grieves and humbles us. It devastates our lives, lives that were once filled with the warmth of their presence. It reminds us that we all must die, even the most humble and righteous among us. And yet we know that life does not end at the grave; the soul lives on.

How, then, do we accept the reality of death? By remembering the goodness of our loved ones and by shaping our lives after their example. For the memory of the righteous is truly a blessing, an inspiration for all of our days. May our lives be worthy of their memory, always.

The Wisdom of our Tradition

Our tradition shows great wisdom in teaching us to gather for services of remembrance on Yom Kippur and on the three pilgrimage festivals (Pesach, Shavuot, and Sukkot). These moments that mark the seasons of the year--the seasons of our lives--awaken strong memories of relationships that shaped us, sustained us, and sometimes challenged us; and of holy days we shared with loved ones and cherished friends.

When they are gone, we can still affirm the beautiful and lasting values we learned from them, and remember them in all their humanness. One of the ways we do that is by coming together as a community of comfort and care.

From its inception a thousand years ago, when it was prayed by Ashkenazic Jews on the morning of Yom Kippur, Yizkor has had two profound themes: God's embrace of the loved ones who are beyond our reach; and our commitment to do the good deeds that are within our reach by giving tzedakah in their memory. When we say Yizkor (May God remember...) we proclaim our faith that those who have died have significance now and forever.

Tearful Recollection

This moment is one of tearful recollection. Here, in the hush and solemnity of this YIZKOR Service, we remember those whom death has taken from us -- who sleep through eternity, united with God. They traveled the highway of life. They came to its end.

Shall we cry out in anger because God's gifts are ours for just a little while? Shall we blot out the love we have known, in which we so often rejoiced, when a force beyond our understanding takes from us loved ones and friends whom we cherish, leaving us bereft of the lights that once illumined our way? Shall brief moments of darkness extinguish forever the precious glow of those lights, the years of love and affection?

Dear God, may we gain the vision to believe that implanted deep within each of us are the seeds of eternity, undiminished and ever-bright, an eternity that survives the dread hours of affliction and pain, loneliness and despair.

And so we do not pray for years without end, nor for life without the alloy of pain. We ask only this: that when the irrevocable summons is issued, we shall have lived a life of worth and merit. For the righteous there is no greater reward. In life, they invest their thoughts and deeds with Torah. In death, they find peace with God -- and their memory is enshrined in the hearts of all who loved them.

We thank You, O God, for the precious loved-ones whom You gave us. Their memories endure, their spirit is everlasting. They live within our hearts. Grant, O God, that those whom we now remember may be at peace with You. May we know Your solace and consolation that we triumph over our grief and sorrow. And may our troubled hearts be troubled no more.

Kavanot

God of All Knowing, I am sometimes speechless, I am sometimes a flood of words. My emotions are a chaotic swirl. Maybe it's like when You were faced with separating Creation day by day. Please help me now as I move through this tumultuous time. Help me find the words I need, help me allow myself the feelings I have, and somehow bring understanding to my grief. Please guide me as I, like You, face the chaos and try to name what is true in the depths of my own soul.

God of Relationship, when I think of the one who has died, I wonder what it might be like to have one more conversation, one more embrace, to maybe even understand something more clearly. Just as my relationship with You has had many parts, I hope that my grief will reveal more deeply all the ways in which relationships with others can bring me even closer to knowing the yearnings of my soul.

Prayer in Memory of a Father

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים נְשִׁמַת אָבִי מוֹרֵי שְׁהַלַּח לְעוֹלָמוֹ. אָנָּה תְּהִי
נְפִשׁוֹ צְרוּרָה בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים. וְתִהְיֶי מְנוּחָתוֹ כְּבוֹד. שְׁבַע

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me this solemn hour as I recall all the kindness, love and encouragement which you have shown me during your life. With untiring zeal you provided for my physical and spiritual needs. You rejoiced in my achievements, you guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. Though you are gone from my physical view, the bond of love which unites us can never be severed

Prayer in Memory of a Mother

Though we are separated, dear mother, in this solemn hour I call to mind the love and solicitude with which you tended and watched over my childhood, ever mindful of my welfare, and ever anxious for my happiness. Many were the sacrifices you made to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. What I achieved is because of your influence, and what I am, I have become through you. Though you are no longer physically present, the lessons that you imparted unto me shall ever remain with me.

Prayer in Memory of a Husband

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים נְשִׁמַת בְּעַלְיֶשְׁהָלָךְ לְעוֹלָמוֹ. אָנָּה תְּהִי נַפְשׁוֹ

In memory of husband or wife

With a sorrowing heart, O beloved, I fondly recall your love and companionship, your tenderness and devotion, and the many comforts and joys you brought into my life. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with my closest companion in life--my soulmate, my friend, my confidant, my helping hand, my listening heart. Though death has taken you from me, the bond which unites us cannot be broken.

In memory of a child

I remember in this solemn hour, beloved child, the many joys you afforded me during your lifetime. I recall the days when I delighted in your physical and mental growth, and planned for your future. Though death has taken you from me, you are not forgotten.
Your spirit is enshrined in my heart.

Prayer in Memory of a Daughter

In memory of a brother, sister, or other relatives and friends

I recall the many hours we spent together in happy fellowship. I shall ever hold sacred the memory of your love and loyalty. May the memory of our companionship lead me out of loneliness; may it awaken in me gratitude for that which still endures.

In memory of congregants:

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who no longer dwell upon this earth. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones be granted comfort and strength.

Meditation

May our sorrows soften and diminish in strength.
May the pain of past bereavements grow gentler with time. Let memory bring us nearer to the loved ones in our midst.

KADDISH TRANSLATION

Exalted and hallowed be God's great name in the world which God created, according to plan.

May God's majesty be revealed in the days of our lifetime and the life of all Israel—speedily, imminently, to which we say Amen.

Blessed be God's great name to all eternity

Blessed, praised, honored, exalted, extolled, glorified, adored, and lauded be the name of the Holy Blessed One, beyond all earthly words and songs of blessing, praise, and comfort. To which we say Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life, for us and all Israel. To which we say Amen.

May the One who creates harmony on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel. To which we say Amen.

Six Million Ones

We are here to remember those who cannot be forgotten. We are here to speak of that which cannot be spoken, but which must not be left unsaid. We are here to remind not others, but ourselves, of that which has been done, of that which has not been done. We are here to ask questions which cannot be answered, but which cannot be left unasked.

We know how to remember the dead we have known. We know how to commemorate the death of one. But all of us mourn not one but six million ones: not only those we have known, but those no one can know, the names that are forever lost.

BIRTH IS A BEGINNING

BIRTH IS A BEGINNING, and death a destination.

And life is a journey from childhood to maturity and youth to age;

from innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing; from foolishness to discretion and then, perhaps to wisdom;

from weakness to strength or strength to weakness—and often back again.

From health to sickness and back, we pray, to health again;

from offense to forgiveness, from loneliness to love, from joy to gratitude, from pain to compassion, from grief to understanding-- from fear to faith; from defeat to defeat to defeat--until looking backward or ahead we see that victory lies not at some high place along the way, but in having made the journey, stage by stage a sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning and death is a destination.

But life is a journey from birth to death to life everlasting.

There is a Season

To every thing there is its season, a time for every purpose under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to uproot;

a time to kill, and a time to heal;

a time to pull down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them up;

a time to embrace, and a time to let go;

a time to keep, and a time to throw away;

a time to tear, and a time to mend;

a time for silence, and a time for speech;

a time for love, and a time for hate;

a time for war, and a time for peace.

EACH PERSON HAS A NAME

Each person has a name. We each have a name given by God and given by our father and mother. We each have a name given by our stature and smile and given by our attire.

We each have a name given by the stars and given by our friends. We each have a name given by our sins and given by our yearnings. We each have a name given by our enemies and given by love.

We each have a name given by celebrations and given by our work. We each have a name given by the seasons and given by our blindness. We each have a name given by the sea and given by our death.

WE REMEMBER THEM

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring.
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want,
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou has anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MOVING ON OR MOVING FORWARD?

Moving on means starting afresh, which, short of being an amnesiac, is a nearly impossible task.

Moving forward, however, means venturing forth on uncharted territory, navigating the world without our parents, our spouses, our partners, or God-forbid, our children for the first time. That's hard, sometimes excruciatingly so. From whom will we seek wisdom or guidance or comfort or nourishment for body and soul, as we move forward? Moving on asks us to shed our past, but moving forward allows us the possibility of bringing some of what we loved along with us into the future.
